

I am writing to protest Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary. Doing this just days before the 2004 election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Because Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, it is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But it is the FCC's job to enforce that requirement.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you.
